MECH: Arbalest    EYES: Blue

Like all members of the fanatic Purifiers, Janis embraces the mysticism that guides the Spirit Cats, but she takes it to a level far beyond most of her fellow Clansmen. She claims that during her Trial of Position, which gained her entry into the Purifiers, she had a vision of the glory she would reap for herself and her Clan; she has dedicated herself to becoming the ultimate warrior ever since. Her scalp is permanently shorn of hair, and every inch of her body is covered with glyphs and symbols that tell a story only she under-

She is a superb pilot and leader, and she is arrogant enough to question the leadership of Galaxy Commander Kev Rosse. Though he defeated her in a Trial of Grievance over one of his decisions, she is convinced that her vision for the Spirit Cats is the true path and that Kev Rosse must go. We can exploit her ambition and single-mindedness should the need arise.

Janis Nova Cat is rightly proud of her Arbalest, "Sanctum." A brand-new design to the Nova Cats within the Draconis Combine, none is available to the Spirit Cats in the Republic. In 3129, however, she won the right to travel to the Nova Cat capital of Irece in House Kurita, one of only a handful of Spirit Cats to do so in the past several decades, and there consulted with the Nova Cat Oathmaster. Upon seeing the first Arbalest walk off the assembly line, she immediately declared a Trial of Possession for it and claimed it as her spoils of victory.

Janis has already made good use of the machine. Though slow for a light 'Mech, it has a long range and significant firepower for such a light design. In late 3131, against an unknown enemy fielding several BattleMechs, the Arbalest's combination of range and firepower kept the enemy at bay until reinforcements could arrive.
