Aniceto Tuvida is a veritable Capellan poster child—an utter conformist to the ideals and policies of House Liao. As a citizen of her people, she is everything a Capellan could ever hope to aspire to, but as a person she is mind-achingly dull. Lacking any sense of initiative or personality, it is quite amazing that Tuvida managed to complete her training as a MechWarrior, and she is almost guaranteed never to surpass her current station. Despite this, however, she seems perfectly content on her mediocre

The Stinger design was almost a century old when the original Star League collapsed, and over a quarter of a million of them had been produced by the time the Word of Blake launched their Jihad. Many of these machines, still in their original configurations, had long been eclipsed as recon elements, prompting legions of refits tailored for other duties, such as pacification and conventional support. The Taurian Concordat, one of the Periphery's most industrially developed realms, produced the model today piloted by Aniceto Tuvida.

Tuvida's Stinger, nicknamed "Hidden Shock," was captured by Capellan troops during the Victoria War against the Federated Suns, apparently after being captured before a disastrous raid against House Davion. Armed with heavy rocket launchers and a medium laser, this machine delivers a surprising punch that Tuvida is only too happy to direct against her Chancellor's enemies.
