As a MechWarrior of the Nova Cat Clan, with the martial abilities, codex, and Bloodname to prove her elite status, people meeting Susan Drummond for the first time are often surprised by her distinctly un-Clanlike appearance. Between her sunken eyes, perpetual frown, pale skin tone, and slight build, she seems to pose little physical threat, but many warriors—Clan and Spheroid alike—have fallen in battle against her for making just such an assessment.

What also makes Drummond an atypical example of a Clan warrior are her preference for defensive tactics in combat and her willingness to sacrifice a victory to save more of her troops. Assigned to a medium-weight Legionnaire in an Omicron Cluster support Star, she uses its high maneuverability not to obtain an ideal firing position, but to move herself into a better position to cover her comrades. Often seen running interference for a slower or less armored warrior, Drummond tends to fire only defensively until she feels the moment is right for a full strike. This behavior—even in the face of countermanding orders—has earned her the dubious nickname of "Mother Hen" among the warriors of Omicron Galaxy.

House Davion's answer to the Lyran's medium Blitzkrieg design, the Legionnaire is a fast, well armored medium 'Mech built around a single weapon system. Originally designed with a single rotary autocannon slaved to a sophisticated targeting computer, the Legionnaire became known for its deadly accuracy after its production began during the Word of Blake Jihad. The export version, produced for sale to The Republic after the war, swaps the rotary cannon in favor of a less sophisticated variety, but retains the same targeting capabilities for increased accuracy.

FS554-21R was one such export version, sold by the Federated Suns to The Republic just after its formation, and ended up in Spirit Cat hands shortly after the collapse of the HPG network. As if acknowledging her own preference for defensive tactics, Susan Drummond, its current pilot, has named this 'Mech "Shield of Omicron."
