tactics, but she conceals these talents beneath an exterior of playful youth that she takes great pains to cultivate. When not on duty, Pelayo spends as much time as possible at the local malls and other places where the young hang out. There she monitors the latest fashion trends in clothing, jewelry, music, and films, to keep "in touch" with the younger generations.

Though she is already in her mid-30s, Alyson Pelayo is still a child at heart, a fact evidenced by a recreational preference for theme parks and arcades over officers' clubs and dining halls. Even her speech and mannerisms come across as those of a high school-age girl more than as those of an experienced combat pilot. For this reason, many tend to underestimate her. In actuality, however, IQ test scores and aptitude exams have demonstrated that Pelayo possesses a very keen mind and a gift for politics and Heavily armored for a VTOL aircraft, but built using the advanced military technologies of the Clans, the Donar assault helicopter brings respectable firepower to the field swiftly and accurately. With an air speed easily faster than most ground units, and a powerful and far-reaching laser as its primary weapon, the Donar can strafe a battlefield almost as well as any aerospace fighter, and has become a favorite cavalry and fire-support copter for Clan and Inner Sphere forces alike.

SR6034-133D ("Springer" to its pilot) was actually built in the Raven Alliance on Lushann, sometime after the Word of Blake Jihad. Its pilot, Remi Clauswich, defected to The Republic of the Sphere in 3107, taking the sophisticated helicopter with him. Both aircraft and pilot were absorbed into The Republic's militia, but separated after a few years. The VTOL eventually became part of Northwind's defending forces before the HPG network collapsed.
